Learn about the world beyond New Mexico!

Become a High School Fellow and learn about international affairs from ambassadors, diplomats, journalists, analysts and others. Meetings are held (in-person and digital) twice per month with a small group of students and world renowned experts.

Who are we?

The Santa Fe Council on International Relations (CIR) is a nonprofit located in Santa Fe. Our mission is to connect New Mexico and the world by engaging and inspiring global citizens through dialogue, education, and cross-cultural exchange.
